CITY BECOMES QUIET

WEST FRANKFORT, Ills., Aug. 6-Quiet prevailed in West Frankfort tonight after last night's rioting in which two score of persons were beaten. Reports that five persons were killed of property. Prompt action imperacould not be verified.

Brigadier General Frank P. Wells and Colonel Frank Taylor arrived tonight from Springfield and took charge of the situation. Militiamen circulated through the town in automobiles and had the streets cleared by 8 o'clock Watkins, who last night telegraphed Governor Lowden asking that troops be sent here tonight expressed the belief that the trouble had ended.

An inventory of last night's lawless ness showed that three stores had been wrecked and six houses burned. The rioters directed their attack against the Italian settlement. There are a number of Polish, Lithuanian and Servian residents here but they were not molested.

Feeling against the Italians been running high as a result of several "black hand" letters reported to have been distributed recently and the climax was reached following the discovery of the murdered bodies of Toney Hemphill, 17 years old, and Amiel Calcalerra, 14 years old, in shallow graves near Royalton, early this
